

REASON FOR APPLYING

JAPAN WORKING HOLIDAY VISA APPLICATION

TO:

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to you to outline my reasoning for applying for a working holiday visa in Japan.

I previously visited Japan for three weeks as part of a twelve-month traveling trip in 2023, where I explored Europe, Australia, New Zealand, South East/East Asia, and North Africa. Out of the twenty countries I traveled during this time, Japan was by far my favourite.

In the three weeks during Sakura season, I visited Tokyo, Osaka, Kyoto, and Fushimi Inari. I was captivated by not only the stunning landscapes but also the rich culture and warm hospitality. I am eager to immerse myself in the magic of all four seasons in Japan; having a working holiday visa would not only give me this experience but also allow me to further explore what Japan has to offer.

During my previous trip, I had the pleasure of indulging in the diverse and delicious food in Japan. I have always been passionate about Japanese food and thoroughly enjoy cooking it myself at home. I am particularly drawn to the precision and artistry in Japanese culinary techniques, and I am excited about learning more from locals and developing this passion while living and working in Japan.

Since my previous visit, I have also begun learning Japanese in order to better connect with the local culture and community. While I am still in the early stages of my language studies, I am committed to continuing my journey and improving through studying during my time in Japan. I am looking forward to learning new skills to allow me to positively contribute to the local community and create lasting memories during my time living and working in Japan.

Yours Faithfully,

Sarah Caton
